

Unit 4 - WWI and the 1920s

Essential Questions:

1. Although American foreign policy was originally based on isolationism and neutrality, how was the United States entry into World War I inevitable?
2. What was the lasting legacy of World War I in the United States and abroad?
3. What economic and political factors contributed to America's economic boom during the 1920s?
4. As customs and values changed in the 1920s, what cultural conflicts did Americans experience?

I. A Brief History of American Foreign Policy

Annotations

Notes

A. Isolationism

1.

2.

B. Monroe Doctrine

1.

2.

C. American Imperialism

1.

2.

D. Roosevelt Corollary

1.

2.

E. Wilson's Moral Diplomacy

1.

2.

Four-Sentence Summary:

II. World War I

Annotations

Notes

A. Conflict in Europe

1.

2.

3.

B. US Neutrality

1.

2.

C. The US Enters the War

1.

2.

3.

D. The Home Front

1.

2.

3.

4.

E. The Allies Win the War\

1.

2.

3.

Four-Sentence Summary:

III. Wilson's Plan for Peace

Annotations

Notes

A. Fourteen Points

1.

2.

B. Paris Peace Conference

1.

2.

3.

4.

C. US Rejects the Treaty

1.

2.

3.

4.

D. Return to Normalcy

1.

2.

3.

4.

Four-Sentence Summary:

IV. Politics of the 1920s

Annotations

Notes

A. Harding Struggles for Peace

1.

2.

3.

B. Fear of Communism

1.

2.

3.

C. Limiting Immigration

1.

2.

D. Labor Unrest

1.

2.

Four-Sentence Summary:

V. Changing Ways of Life

Annotations

Notes

A. American Industries Flourish

1.

2.

3.

4.

B. New Urban Scene

1.

2.

3.

C. Science and Religion Clash

1.

2.

D. The Twenties Woman

1.

2.

Four-Sentence Summary:

VI. Education and Popular Culture

Annotations

Notes

A. Education

1.

B. Mass Media

1.

C. American Heroes and Dreams

1.

2.

3.

4.

D. The Harlem Renaissance

1.

2.

3.

4.

Four-Sentence Summary: